

MILWAUKEE PUBLIC MUSEUM

MEDIA ALERT

See the Streets of Old Milwaukee Come Alive at the Milwaukee Public Museum

What: The Streets of Old Milwaukee will come alive on May 6 and 7. Guests will be even further immersed into Milwaukee at the turn-of-the-century when they talk with curators and costumed interpreters.

Who: Interpreters in period clothing will be in the Streets of Old Milwaukee to tell stories and answer to questions about Milwaukee of the past.

Chat with local residents who roamed the streets in 1910 including a clerk from Chapman's department store, a maid from the Pfister Hotel, a factory worker, a pharmacist and many more!

MPM curators will also be on the first floor to tell you about popular traditions, clothing and toys of the time as well as answer your questions!

When: Friday, May 6 and Saturday, May 7 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Cost: Free with general admission

Where: Milwaukee Public Museum, 800 W. Wells St.
