Do Dinosaurs Snore? Find Out at MPM's Adult Sleepover!

Milwaukee – Grab your friends, partner, or alumni group and head to the Milwaukee Public Museum's Adult Sleepover to find out if T.rex snores, the rattlesnake shakes into the wee hours of the morning, or if the mummies are afraid of the dark on Friday, September 29.

Adults 21 and older will spend the night on the Museum floors and have the freedom to have their ideal museum evening -- kid-free -- with cocktails, tours, curator chats, films in the Dome Theater, and exhibit-based programming.

Camp Halcyon will host their awesome Camp Fire Lounge on the first floor with activities like:

- Build your own s'mores around (flameless) campfires.
- Test your smarts with the Trivia Scavenger Hunt.
- Fun craftivities, scratch paper art, and adult coloring books.
- Board and card games to pass the time with pals.
- Old Fashioned samples sponsored by Boone and Crockett.

MPM's Adult Sleepover begins at 5:30 p.m. on Friday, September 29 and ends at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, September 30. Tickets for the sleepover are $125 per person and include admission and programming, food stations available throughout the evening, two drink tickets, a late night snack, and breakfast. Registration ends Tuesday, September 19 and reservations are required.
